

A few questions about Titanic (6)

After having dinner in first class, Jack and Rose go to third class, where people are having a party: can you describe and compare the different personalities of first-class and third-class passengers?

Why do you think Rose's rich fiancé is so angry with her when she comes back from the party in third class?

Is he... "just a jealous guy"?

What does Rose's mother tell her to convince her not to see Jack anymore?
