

IDENTITY B2

WORDLIST 6

Learning

cram

focus on

get distracted

go in one ear and out the other

go through

learn by heart

read something out loud

recall

say something aloud

take in

Dependent prepositions

Some verbs always require a preposition before the object. Without the preposition, the meaning is incomplete.

I'm going to apply for another course.

Do you agree with the advice?

Unfortunately, there is no rule and you have to learn each verb and preposition individually.

ask for

concentrate on

cope with

deal with

get involved in prepare for

rely on

take part in

talk about

worry about

Easily confused words: learning

assist

attend

find out

join

know

learn

meet

study

take part

teach

EVERYDAY ENGLISH

A* (A star)

in the same boat

like-minded

get my head around

freshers' week